Suit Filed Against City

A $100,000 "breach of contract" suit has been filed against the city of Seaside, Mayor Louis N. Haddad has announced. The suit related to a trade by the city for a small shopping center at the corner of Broadway and Noche Buena, for the old city hall site on Del Monte. Haddad stated that the owners of the shopping center, Dominic and Ninfa Mineo, have presented the city with a summons which must be answered within the next 30 days.

Frank Sinatra Goes Over Big

Singer-actor Frank Sinatra, always a big fund-raiser for Democrats, became co-chairman last week of a group to re-elect Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan. Sinatra said he shares with Reagan "the same desires for the welfare of the people of the state of California and the nation."

Closer Watch Urged on GI Health Fees

The House service benefits committee reported last week that a San Diego psychiatrist made $176,000 on a GI health insurance program in 1968. The committee said the military didn't even bother to look into the payments until nudged by Congress.

Adeline Di Lorenzo Denied Again

Adeline Di Lorenzo, Seaside real estate agent, was again denied an application to build 14 apartment units at 1270 Circle Ave. Mrs. Di Lorenzo's project was denied after planning director William V. Burris said the building plans would not meet the required setbacks and height requirements for the area. Miss Di Lorenzo has been seeking permission to build since 1963.

United Farm Workers File Suit

The United Farm Workers Organizing Committee filed suit last week to block the California Table Grape Commission from collecting or spending money. The $8 million suit asks that the commission's financial activities be halted "as long as it continues its unlawful practices of interfering with the union's right to organize and bargain collectively with grape growers."

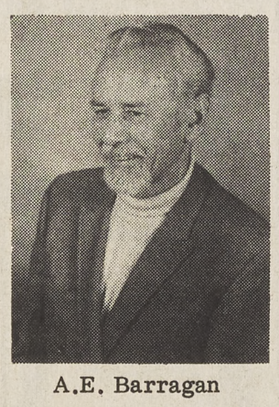
Seaside Ripples

A.E. 'Andy' Barragan, Publisher



A.E. Barragan

Next Tuesday July 21, the voters of Seaside will be voting in one of the most important elections ever to be held in recent years. The main issue will be whether we are to maintain "QUALITY EDUCATION" in our Seaside Schools. Another editorial on the front page of the Post-News Sentinel will point out some of the reasons why you must vote yes in this important election. I want to point out some of the reasons why the increase in the basic tax rate is so necessary. The trend in Washington and in the legislative halls of Sacramento has been to cut down on education funds. The state budget was held up for a week after the June 30 deadline solely for the purpose of trying to add more funds for education. The proponents of "Quality Education" were defeated and funds in the state budget were cut. The same has been the case in the administration proposals coming out of the White House. Less and less is being allocated for education on the excuse that it is "inflationary". How come the war isn't considered "inflationary"? Where was the hue and cry of "inflation" when they tried to bail out the Penn-Central Railroad with $750 million of public funds. It seemsthat the only things that are inflationary are schools, hospitals and any other projects that help people. We know now that income from those sources for 1970-71 will be one million dollars less than needed. So get out and vote for the kids next Tuesday and vote YES.

Employment

The approach of summer brought a rise in employment and unemployment in California this June, the departments of Industrial Relations and Human Resources Development of the Human Relations Agency reported today.

The seasonally adjusted unemployment rate* was 5.9 percent in June, unchanged from the May rate. The June, 1969, rate was 4.4 percent.

Total civilian employment climbed to a record 8,193,000 last month, 94,000 more than in May, according to statistics released by the Department of Industrial Relations. The gain from May appeared

Senior Citizens

State Senator Donald L. Grunsky, R-Central Coast Counties, has expressed concern that many senior citizens are apparently failing to take advantage of the property tax assistance now available to those qualified.

Grunsky said he had been informed only 36,000 claims have been filed so far, compared to more than 45,000 at this point last year.

"This is the third year of the California Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance Program," Grunsky said, "the program was adopted by the Legislature in 1967 to aid senior Californias in paying their property taxes by providing for a refund of an individual's property taxes ranging from 1 percent to 95 percent, depending upon the claimant's household income."

Grunsky also said he has been informed several senior citizens, in reporting their

AMPER

AMPERe, the Association for Monterey Peninsula Environmental Resources, presented the Monterey Planning Commission this week with several recommendations for halting development and speculation of the bay's shoreline and dunes area.

The group seeks to stop further beach-front construction such as the holiday Inn which they feel presents an imminent danger to the ecology of the area.

"Before any irrevocable plans or schedules toward any development are adopted," the group said, "a comprehensive study of the coastline and dunes area must be taken." This study, now only in the planning stage, would be conducted by a team of professionals who would examine the coast area for its recreational potential in future years.

A major concern of the group now is the proposed plans of a Portland, Ore., man, Donald Lehman. Lehman has discussed with the Monterey planning department his intentions for a 300-room hotel on the property directly west of the Holiday Inn.

Future plans for the group call for them to move towards Seaside and a proposed 10-story hotel that would cover 50% of Seaside's 500' beach frontage.

Bill Burris, director of the Seaside City Planning Commission felt there was little chance of the hotel being built. "I've been dealing with Bostland corp. for over two years and we're no nearer agreement now than we were then," he said. Bostland Corp. is the company slated to use the beach-front.

Monterey Institute

The Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies opened its 16th summer session with the largest enrollment in its history. A total of 402 students are officially registered according to registrar Florence Davis. This includes 239 new students and 158 continuing students. Five high school students are enrolled in a special summer language workshop being taught by institute student-teachers under the supervision of the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies department of education.

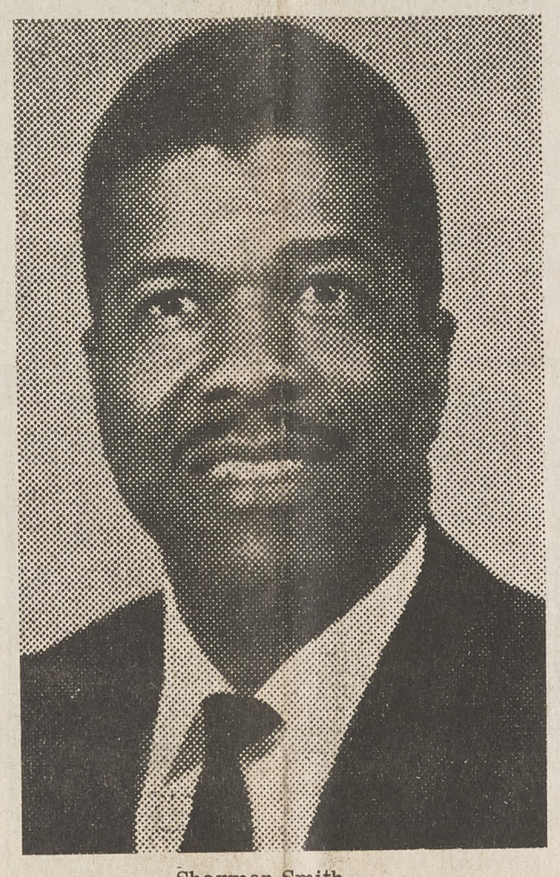
Sherman Smith Chairman On College Board



Sherman Smith

Major Sherman Smith of Seaside was elected chairman of the Monterey Peninsula College board of trustees at the governing board's annual organization meeting recently.Mrs. Richard Eldred of Pacific Grove was elected clerk, and Dr. George J. Faul of Carmel, MPC president and college district superintendent, was reelected secretary to the board.

Smith, who will replace Ralph Atkinson of the Coast Route, is in his second four-year term as a board member, having first been elected in 1965 and reelected in 1969 to serve until 1973.

Mrs. Eldred was appointed November 7, 1968, to complete the unexpired term of Dr. Margaret Swigart, who had resigned in October of that year. Replacing Lewis L. Fenton of Monterey as clerk, she will serve until 1971.

In other action, the MPC trustees approved the college's publication budget of $3,926,186 for the 1970-71 fiscal year and the Associated Students budget of $50,588.

Also approved was the appointment of John Owens as Educational Opportunity Program coordinator to replace Ebenezer Hunter, who has served on an interim basis since the resignation of Ted Smith. Owens, who has assisted the EOP program half-time since May of this year, is completing his master's degree in counseling and guidance at San Jose State College.

Rescue Poor From Loan Sharks

Congressman Burt. L. Talcott (California, 12th District) has introduced legislation to establish federal credit unions in poverty areas to encourage saving and provide access to credit for low-income persons.

The bill, H. R. 18295, has been referred to the House Committee on Banking and Currency. A similar bill, S. 2259, has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Hugh Scott and is now in Committee.

"It is bad enough to have large numbers of poor in our country, but this condition is compounded many times when these same poor people have to resort to pawn shops and loan sharks for necessities. To this end, my bill will enable the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, thru its agencies, to establish credit unions in urban and rural areas, where needed," Congressman Talcott declared.

"Credit unions in Low-income areas have already proved successful. There are nine credit unions in poverty pockets of Washington, D. C., which have total assets of more than $750,000," Talcott continued. "Under my plan, NEW would pay administrative and operating expenses for a period not exceeding five years and provide technical assistance. In addition it would make loans to the credit unions and guarantee loans made by the credit union. Appropriate but modest fees and

Urban Renewal Sites

In its yearly bid to increase outside investment in urban renewal, the Seaside Redevelopment Agency has placed several parcels in its various projects up for sale.

In a recent real estate catalog on urban renewal land, the Seaside agency offers property for sale in the Del Monte Heights, Hannon, Gateway Center and Laguna Grande projects.

The catalog states in part about the projects:

The Hannon project is a 143-acre residential development; goal is to provide new and rehabilitated housing for the low and moderate income market...Over 350 homes brought up to code... Assembly of acquired parcels has approximately 250 single family lots...The price range for these lots, fully improved, is from $2,500 to $4,500.

Laguna Grande, a 165-acre commercial-residential area presently in the planning stage. Laguna Grande is water-oriented, having as amenities two lakes, and close proximity to Monterey Bay. It is apparent that the immediate demand in the area is for development of facilities for Visitor-Commercial. There is a 12-acre area contiguous to the freeway with very good access that is designated primarily for Visitor-Commercial.

Del Monte Heights, a 240-acre residential development; has been developed in a setting of unmatched natural beauty, undisturbed by overhead utilities, with new streets, sidewalks and gutters that gracefully follow the land contour. Over 200 new homes with values between $27,000 and $75,000 have been

With the known income from State and Federal sources $1 million less than is needed, the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District had to make some drastic cuts in "Quality Education" to maintain their budget. For example here are some of the reductions that our children will face when they return to school this fall if we don't vote YES next Tuesday, July 21.

Elementary Schools (grades from 1 to 6): Instrumental music eliminated, Program for gifted children curtailed, Training for teachers of reading out.

Junior High (grades 7 to 9): One period a day eliminated, Special Activities eliminated which include: Speech, Drama, Debate, Student Publications, Special Interest Study Clubs, Instrumental Music Eliminated, Some sports events curtailed.

Senior High (grades 10 to 12): Interscholastic sports eliminated, Special Activities eliminated such as Speech, etc., Vocal and Instrumental music eliminated, Remedial programs in reading and mathematics reduced.

Those are the programs that will be either curtailed or eliminated. The services being reduced are: Tutorial adie services for remedial reading and mathematics, counseling service for students and parents, teacher in-service curtailed, study of new educational materials and teaching methods curtailed, district testing programs out.

And over and beyond all of the above cuts in service and programs the classloads will be increased by a cut in personnel, like 44 teaching positions being eliminated, 27 classified clerks, custodians and gardeners cut off the payroll and over 14 administrative and supervisory positions cut out.

We simply think that these drastic cuts in programs and services will eliminate "Quality Education" in our schools. By adopting the increase in the basic tax rate the income would be increased by about $1,061,853.

A little over enough to cover the loss from other sources.

What would this cost the average taxpayer? ABOUT ONE DOLLAR PER WEEK.

Is one dollar week too much to pay for the continuance of "Quality Education"?

We don't thnk so. VOTE YES FOR KIDS JULY 21.

Donald Morrison Head NEA

7,000 delegates in San Francisco's Civic Auditorium, Morrison called for unity talks on a national level between NEA and the American Federation of Teachers, AFT, NEA's smaller rival and now affiliated with AFL-CIO.

However, he stressed the necessity of maintaining "professional automony" for teachers and rejected the idea of affiliation for them with any group outside of the teaching profession, such as the AFL-CIO.

Urging teachers to make responsible use of "legitimate instruments of power" in their pursuit of professional objectives, Morrison labeled as a "false dilemma" the choice between power and professionalsim.

"In the times in which we live," he declared, "power and professionalism are inseparable. We will either achieve both or we will achieve neither."

He cautioned against seeking power as an end in itself, and declared:

"Let us be wary of choosing the politics of confrontation as an ordinary rather than an extraordinary way of dealing with our fellow citizens and their representatives. A state of constant warfare is no more agreeable in domestic than in foreign relations."

Morrison also made a strong plea for renewed effort among educators to advance the cause of human rights both in the educational community and in society as a whole.

"The pollution of the human mind with prejudice is still the greatest environmental problem in this country," he declared.

Morrison's campaign manager was Eugene M. Peshel, a member of the California Teachers Association (CTA) Board of Directors and a former president of the San Diego Teachers Association. Peshel teaches English at Kearny High School, San Diego.

Morrison and his wife, Geraldine, are the parents of four daughters, Debbie, 18; Wendy, 17; Nancy, 15; and Ann, 10.

Morrison received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Pacific University, Forest Grove, Ore., and began his teaching career in Hillsboro, Ore. He has been teaching in San Deigo schools for the past 13 years, and currently teaches U.S. history at John J. Pershing Junior High School. Before going into teaching Morrison served with the U.S. marine corps and saw World War II combat duty in the Pacific.

For the past two years, Morrison has served on NEA's Executive Committee, the organization's highest elective body. He is also a member of the CTA State Council of Education, and a former president of both the National Council of Urban Education Associations and the San Diego Teachers Association.

In addition to the above, 30 students are attending a special summer institute in Russian language and area studies under the direction of Dr. Alexander Pronin of Fresno State College and visiting professor of Russian at Monterey. The Russian Institute students meet their classes at the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies campus and are housed at the Robert Louis Stevenson School in Pebble Beach.

Enrollment in the Japanese program increased from 15 students enrolled last summer to 25 registered this year. The education department instituted its program with 14 students under Dr. Ly Tran last summer. It has had a phenonenal increase of 285% with 54 students registered this summer.

"The influence of generations of poverty can be overcome by the presence of an institution where the poor can begin to deposit a dollar or two a week in savings and where they may turn in an emergency to borrow the five or twenty-five dollars most banks would never consider lending," Talcott concluded.

Employment

near-seasonal in size, however, only because of the return of Teamsters following a strike settlement.

Factors holding back employment expansion included another drop in aerospace manufacturing employment, the beginning of layoffs of temporary workers on the 1970 Census, the onset of a series of trade disputes, primarily in the manufacturing sector, and a less-than-usual rise for this time of year in construction employment.

Largest gains between May and June among the major categories occurred in trade, transportation - utilities (because of the return of Teamsters), and agriculture.

Compared with June, 1969, total employment was up by 100,000 or 1.2%--the smallest year-to-year gain since mid-1961. Trade, services and government continued to provide the bulk of the new jobs added over the year. Counteracting some of this growth, however, was the continuing loss in manufacturing because of aerospace cutbacks.

For the first time since the latter part of 1965, employment in the aerospace manufacturing complex (aircraft, electrical equipment, ordnance, and instruments) fell below the 500,000 mark this June. Now employing about 495,000, the space-related industries are off by about 78,000 from a year ago.

Employment in construction slipped below the year-ago level for the first time since the fall of 1967 (except for a strike-affected month in 1969). Agriculture was a fraction off from the June, 1969, figure.

Unemployment in California increased by 68,000 between May and June to a total of 540,000. Factors affecting the May-June change included the entry of young workers into the job market at the end of the school term, continued layoffs in aerospace industry, and recovery from the secondary effects of the Teamsters' strike. From June, 1969, the number of unemployed was up by 151,000.

The civilian labor force, consisting of the employed and unemployed available for work and seeking work, totaled 8,733,000 in June, compared with 8,482,000 in June, 1969.

(*The unadjusted rates were 6.2% in June, 5.5% in May and 4.6% in June, 1969.)

social security income, are using the present payment schedule instead of the one in effect during the 1969 calendar year.

"This is unfortunate," said Grunsky, "because if they are reporting increased income, they will receive proportionally diminished property tax relief.

"To be eligible for Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance claimants must be over 65 years of age as of January 1, 1970; must own and occupy their home; must have paid the property taxes on the home; and must have a total household income of less than $3,350." Grunsky said, "insivisuals may obtain forms from any offic of the Franchise Tax Board or by writing to Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, P. O. Box 1588, Sacramento, California 95807."

HEROIN

Heroin ("Smack", "H", "Junk") is fast becoming one of the major causes of juvenile deaths in the country today.

Five to ten milligrams can start an addiction and dosage can jump to 450 milligrams and cost $300 or more a day. Once its addictive powers take hold, heroin causes an extremely strong psychological and physiological dependence and has powerful depressant action. After spasms of 30 to 60 seconds, there's a "high" which impairs senses, coordination and judgment and causes drowsiness or stupor, constricted pupils, slow pulse and respiration. Disease, constipation, loss of appetite and weight follow. With an overdose, respiration slows, the addict goes into coma and dies.

Severity of withdrawal increases with the length of addiction and quantity and quality of heroin used. Symptoms can range from a runny nose and eyes to severe vomiting, leg, back and abdominal cramps and twitching. Without adequate help, escape can be difficult.

A surer method of withdrawal now being used by some California rehabilitation centers is a chemical called methadone. For as little as 4¢ a dose this synthetic narcotic provides a legal substitute which answers a craving for heroin, yet eliminates its debilitating effect—gives the heroin addict new hope for an active and happy future.

Brewers are Farmers' Best Friends

Diamonds may still rank as a girl's best friend, but talk to the modern agri-businessman in the states of Washington, Oregon and California, and he'll likely tell you that the brewer rates as a pretty good buddy of the farmer.

It's all because an expanding West Coast brewing industry last year produced more than 15 million barrels of beer and in so doing purchased more than $35 million worth of barley, hops, rice and other agricultural products used in the brewing industry.

In addition to this ready cash market, the brewer-farmer relationship takes on even added meaning when the brewer salvages the spent grain and returns it to the farmer in the form of livestock and poultry feed.

Brewing and agriculture — two of the West's basic industries — thus work together for the benefit of each.

Who Cares?

by Mel Vercoe

Heroin--we don't like to see it in print, and we don't like to talk about it, but it is here. It is in New York and San Francisco and on the Monterey Peninsula.

A shooting death on Del Monte Avenue a couple years ago was tied in with heroin "pushing", but this was not mentioned in the news item about the incident. And there are pushers plying their trade on the peninsula today because the technicalities of the laws, including Constitutional rights, do not permit them to be taken out of circulation.

You don't know any of them? Are you sure? Let us hope your children never meet any of them, and hope further that none of their clients decide to kill you in a senseless robbery to get enough money to support their habit.

Heroin has two primary effects when it strikes a community. It destroys its victims and it creates a vicious crime circle in which pushers solicit new users who must turn to crime to satisfy their needs, and this crime often includes becoming pushers in turn who then must solicit more customers.

With 200,000 addicts in the U.S., at a yearly cost of say four billion dollars (a cost which must somehow be borne by society as a whole), and at a further cost of having to support prisons, hospitals, extra law enforcement agencies, then add to this the murders, broken homes, ad infinitum, and we do have a problem.

This self-perpetuating problem, by its very nature, must spread in order to support its growing list of victims in the manner in which they have found they must be supported.

If the drug supply was unlimited and cheap and easily available to its victims, there would be no incentive for pushers to waste their time seeking new sales outlets, and there would be no need to commit crimes to finance the habit.

This is the basis for a new approach to the problem--supplying a synthetic substitute drug, methadone, under supervision, to addicts who want to kick the habit. Unfortunately, in order to kick the heroin habit they switch to the methadone habit, but it is not destructive and can be easily controlled, although also difficult to "kick."

The methadone, at a cost of ten dollars per year, can substitute for heroin, at a cost of ten thousand per year. Control results in experimental clinics have been so encouraging the Federal government is now going to take on the job of supervising a large scale methadone program. Finding new jobs for the heroin pushers and importers will be a small price to pay in return for the lives and money and careers and homes saved by adopting this new approach to an unmentionable problem.

DMV

If you have a motor vehicle, you probably know that a "pink slip" is a 5x5-inch square of paper that tells the world you are the vehicle's owner. But what's a "yellow slip"?

This new document has been designed by the Department of Motor Vehicles to let you tell the world when you have stopped owning the vehicle, send the yellow slip to us," advise California's Registrar of Vehicles John L. McLaughlin. "It can protect you from being accused of traffic violations which might be charged to the future owner."

He added that it's still the buyer's legal duty to record transfer of the vehicle within ten days after taking delivery, so that ownership records can be rewritten in his name.

"We'd like to make the yellow slip as well known as the pink slip," says McLaughlin, "It can spare the vehicle seller a lot of grief and expense, whether or not the buyer reports the purchase to us.

"For best results, the buyer and seller should go to the nearest DMV office and file their papers together."

Baseball Teams Make A Hit

Babe Ruth baseball teams in the Seaside area are again competing for championship trophies to be awarded by Aetna Life & Casualty.

General agent S.W. Schember, CLU, head of the company's life division at San Jose, said his office will present trophies to winners of Babe Ruth district play-offs in the area as part of a national Aetna-Babe Ruth awards program.

Countrywide, Aetna Life & Casualty will present more than 700 team and individual trophies to district, state and regional champions, and to competitors in the Babe Ruth World Series to be held at Brawley, Cal., August 21-29.

Stay Away From Rodents

A human case of bubonic plague in Shasta County and an outbreak of the disease among squirrels in Monterey County have prompted a warning from the state public health director.

"Ground squirrels and chipmunks in California can be infected with bubonic plague, and fleas infesting these creatures may transmit the diesase to humans," said Dr. Louis F. Saylor. Many people associate plague only with rats, he said.

Families vacationing in mountain and coastal areas should avoid contact with such rodents, Dr. Saylor said. He noted that an 8-year-old boy, now recovering from bubonic plague, had been feeding squirrles near Burney Falls last month.

Dr. Saylor advised vacationers to keep campsites clean, to use insect repellent on socks and trouser cuffs and to locate tents or sleeping bags away from animal burrows.

Young Adults For Action

The Young Adults for Action were guests at Soledad North Facility recently. They were invited by Mr. C. Parham, a correctional counselor and sponsor of the Afro-American History and Culture Group.

The meeting was sparked by a change in the regular format when Lee Toler, Director of YAFA, asked the crowded room "What can we do that would help you brothers?"

The YAFA staff were bombarded with constructive suggestions, most of which Toler assured the men he would do all in hos power to respond in a positive manner. Most of the suggestions were directed toward means and methods to relieve much of the tension that exists within the prison, and ways and means to prevent such unfortunate incidents which recently occurred at the institution's Central facility.

Young Adults for Action is an organization based in Seaside who dedicate their energies to helping those who find themselves in trouble and in need of services which come about because of social and economic problems.

Jimmy Roy, program administrator for YAFA, described their work as basically "crime prevention," but he further elaborated that "education is the key to success." Roy indicated that even though there is a lack of industry in the immediate area, YAFA exerts much of its energies toward enrolling persons in various academic and vocational training programs and negotiating with industry in other areas to take on employees as OJT personnel and when necessary people are relocated to these other areas.

The staff attending the meeting were: Lee Toler, Trevor Laing, Jimmy Roy, George Solomon, James Golden and R.T. Brown.

YAFA is a non-profit organization operating solely on private contributions. The office is located at 1189 Broadway in Seaside. For any information regarding the multi-function of the organization, call 394-8558.

I have not seen so much activity on behalf of the children in our schools for a long time and one of te main reasons that I think that the "VOTE YES" campaign is going to win this time in Seaside is that there are so many good people working for its passage through the "Citizens for Seaside Schools." Just to mention a few, we have Chester Van Orman working on the Poster and Endorsements and successfully too. They got the official endorsement of the Seaside City Council. Linda Bassett was in on that action too. Melanie Bassett and Jim Penrose worked on the parade entries. Sam Brown, Vivian Holly, Melvin Fortes, Lynn Penrose, Betty Mann and Jim Solberg all were out plugging to get endorsements too. These are only a few that I can cover now, I am sure that there must have been many, many more. A community thanks you.

The Fourth of July Parade is now a matter of history in Seaside and it will go down as a good day in the books as one of the, if not the most successful parades we have ever held. Again it was those good people out there working practically day and night putting all of the details together so that when we the public saw the parade it was all smooth and great. Again, we can only mention a few of the people who worked so hard to make the Fourth of July celebration what it was, a success. Dee Alsbury at the reviwing stand lending her charming personality making all of those VIPs welcome. Bud Houser handling the line of march and keeping the announcer supplied with the many facts and anecdotes necessary for an interesting commentary. I'm also sure that Bud had to make some substitutions when the correct line of march didn't appear. Chairman Howard Ingels and secretary of the CFE Art Bayer and all of his loyal helpers deserve a vote of thanks from all of us. Those tireless LIONS Club members who put on the terrific barbecue after the parade did a wonderful job. It takes a lot of organization to put on a feed for that many people and chairman Dick Searle of the Lions certainly did a lot of organizing. He promoted our ex-mayor Jack Ohdemeyer to volunteer as Head Chef and you should have seen all of Jack's helpers flying around cooking up that chicken barbecue. We enjoyed it very much. Also participating with a cake sale were the Junior Varisty Cheerleaders. The Ord Terrace Community School and hot dogs and cokes for the youngsters with Ace Hill and Albert Lockwood looking over the operation. The Seaside Chamber of Commerce had a booth selling tacos and other Mexican delicacies for the benefit of the Seaside Pony-Colt League, Mr. Cotino was in charge there.

I know that I have left out a lot of names of people who helped and who participated in the parade. Those participants deserve our thanks for a job well done.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir,

I enjoy the Seaside POST News-Sentinel and have meant for a long while to send money to help defray the cost of printing. So now that the Fourth of July is behind us and all the shouting has died down, I just finished a copy of your paper and I am enclosing $5.00 for the years subscription.

It's a good feeling to read this publication and I hope it will continue to be printed for a long time to come.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Robert D. River

Questions & Answers

Q--I will be separated from military service in the near future. How long will I have to convert my Servicemen's Group Life Insurance?

A--You must make application for conversion and pay the first premiums before 120 days after separation or release from active duty.

Q--My VA pension was discontinued when I received an extra large dividend. Does this mean that I will no longer receive a pension?

A--If the dividend was a one-time payment, your pension will be discontinued only for the current year. Next year, you will again be eligible if your income reverts to what it was prior to the time your pension was discontinued.

Q--Where may I obtain a record of discharge of a man who was in the Navy during the years 1915 to 1918?

A--You might write to the Officer in Charge, National Personnel Records Center (Military Personnel Records), 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, Missouri 63132.

LAW IN ACTION

PUBLIC NUISANCE

Dan Dumpty owned a large empty lot on which he piled old equipment, cars, trash and the like. Weeds and clutter added to the lot's ugliness.

The city prosecuted Dan and the court fined and ordered him to clean up the place. Dan appealed to a higher court, and, on a "technicality," won.

The district attorney filed a new action charging Dan with maintaining a public nuisance. This time Dan claimed he had been put in double jeopardy, but the court ruled against him. He had to pay and to clean up his lot. A public nuisance is a "continuing" crime for which the district attorney could prosecute.

In another case guests held wild parties in a hotel where narcotic arrests and other crimes were frequent. The hotel was not meeting health standards. In court the hotel owner claimed he did his best to keep his guests in line but he could not do so.

Still the district attorney sued to close the hotel on the ground that it was a public nuisance. The city did close it.

In still another case, Art had inherited an apartment house which his father had built years before. In 1923 it had been a fine structure, meeting all the standards of that time. But now it was a danger to the public. Because of changing standards, the court ruled that an abatement proceeding was valid.

A new building code may be "retroactive" if its terms are reasonable and public safety and health are involved. For example, it would be reasonable for owners to have a reasonable time to meet requirements for expensive changes. On the other hand, if scientific discoveries show that a building needs corrections at once, it would be reasonable to have the owner make prompt corrections, however costly.

School Tax

The following letter was sent to citizens of Seaside and is reprinted by the Seaside Post and News-Sentinel because of the importance of voting YES on Tuesday July 21st.

Dear Sir:

We would like to bring a very urgent matter to the attention of your membership. OUR SCHOOLS ARE IN TROUBLE FINANCIALLY. Unless extra funds become available, cuts will be made that directly affect students at all levels. Some of the programs to be cut include instrumental music and programs for the gifted at the elementary level; one period a day eliminated at the junior high level as well as special activities, instrumental music and some sports events curtailed; at the senior high level, inter-scholastic sports and vocal and instrumental music eliminated, as well as the elimination of such special activities as speech, drama, debate, student publications and special interest study clubs.

As you can see, all citizens of the school district should lend their support to insure that these cuts will not be made.

What can your club do to help out? We need endorsements. Enclosed is a form we are asking you to fill out and return as soon as possible to the address below. We are asking for group and individual endorsements. We also need volunteers. If you can donate time toward this worthy cause, or if you require further information, please call one of the numbers listed below.

Thank you for your support.

Cigarette Tax

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy today announced the distribution of $4,190,043 to counties and cities as the June apportionment of cigarette tax.

Monterey County received $5,144 and Seaside got $5,207. The 58 counties' share was $786,764 and the cities' share totaled $3,403,289.

This distribution represents 30% of the revenue deposited in the Cigarette Tax Fund during the month of May 1970, less 30% of the total administrative costs in compliance with legislation approved in 1969.

Other peninsula cities received the follwoing amounts: Monterey, $6,745; Sand City, $109; Del Rey Oaks, $413; Pacific Grove, $1,952, and Carmel, $1,528. Marina is included in the county total.

Household Hints

Cut both ends from cans and use in garden. After young plants are set out, slip open end over plant. Protects from wind and water and fertilizer can be controlled till new plant gets started.

Your Social Security

by Raymond MacDonald

Q. Will there be any difficulty in collecting reimbursement under Part B of Medicare if a woman's receipted bill shows her married name rather than her name as shown on her health insurance card (E.G. Mrs. John Smith instead of Mary Smith)?

A. There should be no difficulty in collecting under these circumstances as long as the claims form identifies her as one and the same. However, it would be best to have the bill made out in the name shown on the health insurance card to eliminate any possibility of difficulty, always include your claim number on the bill.

Q. My husband may be forced into early retirement at 62 because of a company merger. Our two minor children will be 16 and 14 at that time. I will be 56. Will the children be able to recieve benefits until they reach 22 (they will go to college), and can I receive a mother's benefit for the same period?

A. The children will be able to receive benefits on their father's record of earnings, when he retires; and they can collect these up to age 22, so long as they remain in school full time and unmarried. You will be able to collect a mother's benefit until the younger child reaches 18 and then have to wait until you reach age 62 to receive a wife's benefit. A widow may receive a benefit at age 60.

Western Urban Renewal Land Catalog

The nation-wide release of a Western Urban Renewal Land Catalog containing factual data on this city's urban renewal projects was announced recently by Russell Hoss, Executive Director of the Redevelopment Agency of the City of Seaside. The Colorful catalog was prepared and released by The Land Executives Association in cooperation with the San Francisco Regional Office of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Ten Thousand of these land catalogs covering urban renewal lands available in the nine western states plus Guam and including Alaska and Hawaii have been mailed to potential developers, brokers, large financing institutions, hotel chains, retail store chains, building contractors, appraisers and other real estate institutions.

The catalog contains pictures, plot maps and other data on project lands ready for development. It also presents full information on the necessary steps to be taken to acquire and develop urban renewal land, whom to contact in each city, the part real estate brokers may play in the land sales program, and other information which potentially interested parties may need to know.

The catalog may be seen at at the Seaside City Library or at the Redevelopment Agency of the City of Seaside at 1600 La Salle Avenue, Seaside, Ca.

Religion In Seaside Post News-Sentinel

By THEODORE R. McKENNY

The previous article ended with this statement: "The next article will deal with some steps the Black Church must take to get on the case of racism and assume a new stance in the black community. A word must be spoken against what I have chosen to call a "slave theology." Realizing that the term "theology" may create a problem for a lack of clarity or definition, perhaps it is in the best interest to define the term and eliminate the possibility of misunderstanding. Theology is man-talk about God-talk. That is the simpliest definition of all theologies. This being the case, all theology arises out of the community; out of concrete, existential situations. Thus theology must be interpreted in the contemporary social and cultural context.

The first step the Black Church must take in assuming a new stance in the black community and in educating its constituency is to rid itself of a "slave theology." A slave theology which is still so much a part of the Black Church's experience has its roots in slavery, that dehumanizing, demeaning economic system that Kenneth M. Stampp calls, "The Peculiar Institution." Slave theology for ante-bellum black people was a technique for survival and is not to be minimized or abhorred. It was the only way black people could make sense out of the religion they found in the New World (Christianity). Being considered only 3/5 of a human being, black people utilized religion in such a way that at least it would have a little meaning in their earthly lives.

The white man's heaven being the black man's hell, ante-bellum black folk were forced to create their own heaven. Caught up in a world of despair, deprivation and dehumanization, black folk had two alternatives on the matter of how best to utilize the Christian faith. First, they could have stood firm on the radical and revolutionary teachings of the gospel (primarily dealing with liberation and freedom), or carve out for themselves a "theology of survival," and they chose the latter, for the former alternative meant whippings, beatings, lynchings and setting in motion a black genocidal strategy by whites. So our forefathers were not as dumb as some of us would like to believe. Perhaps they did the best thing possible in their particular situation. Being unable to reconcile the Christian religion and the grim realities of their earthly existence, black people turned the Christian religion primarily into an otherworldly religion or slave theology.

The religion or theology of the salves gave them hope and strength to survive. It also gave some degree of meaning and purpose and fulfillment to their lives. Any dispossessed people will utilize religion in a predominantly otherworldly context in order to make religion meaningful and relevant to them in their existential situation. Consequently, an otherworldly theology is a slave theology because it was conceived in slavery, born in slavery and nurished in slavery.

But black people are no longer slaves. Some are still slaves psychologically for they are still holding on to a slave mentality, but black people are not slaves in the physical sense of the term. So in order for the Black Church to be meaningful and relevant in the lives of black people, it is imperative that the Black Church free itself of its "escape theology" or "slave theology."

An escape theology or slave theology is a theology that foregoes the hard realities of this life and focus its attention primarily upon the next life; a theology that causes one to tolerate his earthly existense in hopes that existence in the next world will compensate for what was withheld in this world; a theology which cause its adherents to act as if God Himself prescribes the pattern and perimeters of their lives and that to attempt to alter these prescriptions would be futile, not to mention contrary to His Will; a theology that focuses mainly on the non-material aspects of the lives of its adherents and attempts to sing away the real and mundane problems of being poor, oppressed and black in America. An escape theology for "cowards." It is a theology for the paranoiac, for it is detached from all reality.

Clifford E. Darden says that the escape theology has been so effective in the Black Church that even today we find a large segment of the black populace, especially the older people -- still hung up on not attempting to build "treasures" here on earth, but in heaven. This type of religious nonsense has reinforced a lifestyle that can be characterized as essentially fatalistic. It is most difficult to convey to many black people the idea that one does not have to leave this world in just as wretched a condition as one came into it. Let the Black Church come out of its "escape" or "slave" theology bag. We ain't slaves any more. We ain't scared any more. We have gotten our thing together.

HOME TOWN NEWS

Navy Airman Apprentice Harry E. Frank, of 1970 Notche-Buena, Seaside, Calif., is now serving at Naval Air Station, Meridian, Miss.

LONE BEACON

Oregon is the only state whose legislature has set up a statewide methadone program for treatment of heroin addicts.

Christian Science

Questions about the origin and preservation of life are answered from a metaphysical viewpoint in the Lesson-Sermon on "Life," to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, July 19.

One of the readings from 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of the Christian Science, states:

"We apprehend Life in divine Science only as we live above corporal sense and correct it. Our proportionate admission of the claims of good or of evil determines the harmony of our existence, -- our health, our longevity and our Christianity."

One of the Bible passages is from Job: "The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almightly hath given me life."

All are welcome to attend services beginning at 11:00 a.m. at Christian Science churches on Monterey Peninsula.

Art Commission

The Seaside Art Commission invites the public to see Robert Horne give a demonstration of oil painting at the Seaside City Hall on Friday, 17 July, at 7:30 p.m.

English born, Mr. Horne studied at the Royal College of Fine Arts and had a number of private tutors, including Sir John Rothenstein, Augustus John, John Piper and Henry Moore. He has exhibited in many shows abroad and had two lithographs selected for the Illustration Section of the Royal Academy. He has a gallery in Carmel, where he shows his work.

Monterey Peninsula Black Artists please call Tom Webb, Seaside Art Commissioner, 394-1671 or 394-1732, for a coming exhibit.

Saturday Night Concert

Following Mount Hermon's traditional Swedish Smorgasbord served from 5-7 p.m., a newly formed choral group, The Singspiration Singers will present a concert in Mount Hermon's Auditorium. The group, directed by Paul Matthews (associate and personal representative of John W. Peterson, head of Singspiration, Inc.), is made up of selected voices from 11 churches representing several evangelical denominations. Their numbers will include humn arrangements, contemporary anthems and gospel songs. Instrumental solos and small group ensembles will add color and variety to the program.

Matthews has 17 years' experience in church music, and was appointed by John Peterson and Pat J. Zondervon, head of Zondervon Enterprises, to be the west coast voice for Peterson.

This concert, the third in a series of Saturday night specials sponsored by Mount Hermon Christian Conference Center, will start at 7:30 p.m. and is open to the public at no admission charge.

Moiseyev To Appear

The Moiseyev Dance Company made its American debut on April 14, 1958, at the Metropolitan Opera House. It was an immediate sensation and the company returned here in 1961 and again in 1965. Its dances, derived from folk materials and choreographed by its director, Igor Moiseyev, won acclaim from critics, audiences and professionals, who were astounded at the fantastic virtuosity of the dancers.

All the Moiseyev tours have been presented by Hurok, under the Cultural Exchange Programs between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Mail orders for the Moiseyev Dance Company are now being accepted by the Sherman-Clay Box Offices.

The Moiseyev will appear July 28 through August 2 at the San Francisco Opera House.

The world-famous dance company is now appearing in the United States on its fourth tour under the management of S. Hurok.

As on previous visits, a symphony orchestra made up of American musicians will accompany the 110 dancers. The program will include many old favorites and several new works.

The Tin Barn Players

The Tin Barn Players, a repertoire group recently formed to bring the best American theatre to civilians and military personnel in the Bay Area, will open their 1970 season with the smash Broadway comedy "You Know I Can't Hear You When the Water's Running" by Robert Anderson. All shows will be presented without charge as a public service.

The company, working under the auspices of the Entertainment Section, Special Services, can be seen July 18, and 19 at the Tin Barn on Private Bolio Road, Presidio of Monterey. Curtain will rise at 8 p.m. An exerpt from the show will also be presented at the Officer's Wives Club luncheon on July 14 at 12 noon. Parents are reminded that this play is not recommended for children.

The show is composed of four separate but related playlets showing the comedic aspects of everyday incidences as seen through the eyes of the audience. The company's four directors chose this play to showcase talent in the Monterey Bay Area.

Heidi Steudler, producer of the show and Ft. Ord's Entertainment Director, commented on her newly formed company:

"Unlike many other service sponsored theatre groups, ours will be completely open to the public. Our only goal is to bring good entertainment to the civilian and military public alike. Readings for our company will also be open to everyone, and so will a free theatre workshop now in the planning stage."

BAUTISTAS PLAN PLAY DAY FOR SEASIDE CHILDREN

The Veteran's Memorial Park in Monterey will surrender its peaceful green countenance for a multi-colored fun-pakced, hot dog, ice cream, balloons, and candy atmosphere on Sunday, August 2. The park will be transformed into a virtual mini-playland for approximately 100 to 150 of Seasides' children, from 8 to 12 years of age.

The children will be picked up from the Del Rey Theater in Seaside, and transported to the park area and returned. There, they will participate in supervised games and equipped with party favors as well as stomachs crammed with hamburgers, candy and sodas. The festivities will start at 10 a.m. and end at 5 p.m.

At present, "Hocus Pocus" of KNTV and a few other "Kiddie favorites" are being asked to join in the fun.

The Bautista family of Seaside is sponsoring this day long event. Guillermo Bautista, head of the clan, has asked that those wishing to contribute should contact the Seaside Post News Sentinel. All donations will be used to enable more children to attend the event.

The above picture of the Bautista family is not complete without recognizing the feminine side, another head of the clan, Fels Bautista, as well as Peggy, 16 years, the only daughter, along with four daughters in-law: Alice, Bernice, Jeanette and Maria, plus three granddaughters: Lilli Ann, Ronice and Heather.

The Senior Bautista and his family have resided in this area for many years. He served 30 years in military service, retiring as a Captain in the army. He is a businessman, a prevalent car salesman at British Motors in Monterey, and Vice Chairman of the City of Seaside Planning Commission. Like his father, Benny is also a very powerful salesman at Beatty's Motors, also in Monterey.

The Bautistas wish to openly express their thanks to Mrs. Marion Woodie, Community Counselor, Monterey Peninsula Unified School District, for her fine assistance in contacting various schools and families of all races, whose children qualify for registration.

JULY 4TH BAR-B-QUE

The Albert Gaines of Monterey, entertained royally during a well planned July 4th cocktail, bar-b-que on their beautiful patio. Approximately fifty invited guests enjoyed the early afternoon until...affair. The guests played cards, danced and ate delicious ribs, chicken and hamburgers, along with a number of scrumptious salads, a special recipe for baked beans, garlic french bread and desserts.

During the evening the children, under adult supervision, enjoyed watching fireworks in the Gaines' spacious backyard.

COMPLETES TRAINING

George (Mike) Baxter, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Baxter of Seaside, has recently completed Photo Intelligence School at Lowry Air Force Base, Colorado. Mike was top in his class of navy personnel taking this course.

He has recently been assigned to Moffitt Field, San Jose, where he took up his new duties after a brief visit with his family.

VACATION IN HAWAII

Mrs. Mattye Blakney of Seaside, vacationed in Hawaii, this past June, and was the guest of the Warren Reeds, formerly of Seaside.

While there, she toured the "Big Island, Pearl Harbor, the beaches and other sights of interest. Mrs. Blakney, stated she was caught by surprise, when looking for a pineapple tree, to find pineapples grow on a bush. She also stated that she found the native very friendly and who are trying to work through different agencies, such as the Headstart Program and other programs to help alleviate poverty on the island. She went on further to say that the University of Hawaii has an exchange program with the University of Arizona, where Indians and Hawaiians visit each other from 4 to 6 weeks.

With the musical strings of Hawaii, she left the island with a feeling of regret, and fond wishes for the different groups of people she met.

Summer Work

The Neighborhood Youth Corps will provide summer work opportunities for 6,980 disadvantaged youth in Northern California, according to the office of congressman Burt Talcott.

Talcott said the goal of the summer NYC program is to provide earnings, work-experience, and supportive services to youths from poor families, to enable them to stay in school, and to encourage potential school dropouts to return to school in this fall, to better prepare themselves for eventual employment.

Enrollees may work a maximum of 260 hours, preferably 26 hours a week for ten weeks. They will be paid $1.45 an hour, an increase of 15¢ an hour over last summer's base. Remedial education and job-oriented work will be included in the program.

Included in the program, the Monterey County Office of Education will be alloted 373 slots in the amount of $165,290 of federal funds.

S.F. Symphony

The deadline for renewal of season ticket subscriptions for the 1970-71 concert season of the San Francisco Symphony with Maestro Seiji Ozawa, conductor and music director, is Wednesday, July 8, according to an announcement by Joseph A. Scafidi, general manager of the San Francisco Symphony Association.

"Because of the heavy demand for tickets from new subscribers the prior seat locations of those of our subscribers who do not renew on or before July 8, cannot be guaranteed," said Scafidi.

All season tickets must be accompanied by a 25% minimum deposit, and orders may be charged to BankAmericard, Mastercharge or Emporium accounts. The full amount may be made payable to the San Francisco Symphony Association.

Grooving Around The Peninsula with Betty Mann

Hi There Fellow Peninsulans:

Here's hoping your long 4th of July weekend, reached up to all of your expectations. Happenings last week were; The out of sight 4th of July parade. For those of you who were not there you missed a treat. I know some of you were afraid of those so called militant radicals, that you had read about in the news media. As I watched this group marching in a silent demonstration it left me along with others with mixed feelings, for as much as most of us do not like demonstrations, some of their ideas and principles have very good merits. like some of the signs tated "down with racism, (I dig that the most) "Bring our boys back from Asia, (I can buy that too.) "Vets for peace" & etc., so before we condemn these signs, stop a minute and look into the issues & doctrines', that are behind some of these orgn's. (Now don't Y'all start thinking I'm a member of one of these orgn's, (baby I'm just stating facts.)

Back to the parade now: I was happy to see all of our smiling city officials & etc., but you know I began to wonder again when I saw the Seaside Chamber of Commerce float, why weren't there any members of the other ethnic groups represented on this float from Seaside, which should represent everyone? It was good to here that three of our Ethnic groups won trophys for floats & best decorated cars the Fil American Club, won 1st prize, for their gorgeous float. The Portugese club won 1st prize for best decorated car, The Monterey Peninsula Cotillion League, won 2nd prize, for the best decorated car, and the American Legion, won 3rd prize for the same above mentioned. Did you dig the tall drum major, with the long legs, from the Coast Guard, he was really doing his thing, hugh!

I dug the Long Shoremen looking like they were fixing to have a dock strike, or brawl, as they marched so elegant & precise, with their steel hooks, heh heh! I wonder did the 1st float with the Astronauts on the moon win a prize? This was indeed a very memorative idea, and it was pretty also. So for those of you who were afraid of violence occurring and decided to stay home, (you missed it.) (smiles) Now before going into a more serious thing, let me share this "Jokem" with Y'all; White San Francisco, muni-bus driver as three off duty drivers (all black), clamber onto a crowded bus: "Backa the bus, backa the bus," he yelled, One of the three, with a wide grin said "Man, and to think this is why I got out of Mississippi in '52! (smiles). Now for more serious thought about our local school situation, that is facing a serious crisis. After speaking with quite a few of our voters, & taxpayers, I've found that quite a number of you are not aware that if you don't vote yes, on Tues. July 21, our children, (our future leaders of tomorrow) are in for curtailed studies & etc. if we the voters let them down on Tues. July 21. Signing off for now.

Monterey Antique Show & Sale

Monterey's Bi-Centennial Celebration has whetted the interest in antiques of California's ethnic and historical past. This year the 13th Annual Monterey Peninsula Antique Show and Sale, July 17, 18 and 19, at the Exposition Building of the Monterey County Fairgrounds. Will feature ornate jewelry, porcelains, china and crystal as well as fine furniture, fashioned by artisans of the past. Heroic Spanish tables and chairs sailed around the Horn, delicate Oriental objects d'art and hand-hewn, pegged pioneer items will be on display.

A dealer from Mazatlan, Mexico featuring pre-Columbian artifacts will be one of the new exhibitors this year.

Quality rather than quantity is the tradition of this annual show where space is limited to 25 select dealers, all operating established shops. Yet you can find a price range from as little as $1 for a silver spoon to thousands of dollars. What may be a bargain today may well be a collector's item tomorrow.

While most collectors arrive the first day, those who come on Saturday and Sunday can brouse leisurely in an aura of quiet festivity through the attractive desplays.

For the convenience of the patrons, the ladies of St. Mary's-by-the-Sea Episcopal Church, sponsors of the show, will operate a Country Kitchen Snack Bar, featuring homemade sandwiches, salads, cakes and pies. Door donations are $1.05 and the hours are noon until 9 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and from noon until 5 p.m. on Sunday.

As it coincides with the Spanish Week of the Old Monterey Bi-Centennial, the Carmel Bach Festival, and Viva el Baile, a Spanish ballet in Pacific Grove, the Monterey Peninsula Antique Show and Sale is one of the many happenings antique aficionados can enjoy, July 17, 18 and 19, on the Monterey Peninsula.
